ADULT PROBATION – OFFICE REMODEL

Garret Nichols stated they would like to replace the carpet in the Adult Probation Office. He stated the carpet was 25 years old and has recently gotten water damage from a leak in the ceiling. He received an estimate.

Berry asked when the last time they requested maintenance to clean it. Garret stated they had not asked but doesn't think it would help. Berry wants to wait until the water leak issue is patched. Woodall asked for another estimate. Woodall asked who was paying for it. Nichols replied he was hoping the county would. The Commissioners agreed to have the department get better estimates and go from there.

RECORDER CONTRACT

Heather Gilbert stated Equity Protect is a fraud alert system. The public is very concerned about someone taking their property. This watch program guarantees they will watch the property. There is no fee to the county. To become a member, the homeowner pays. Helmer asked if there was any liability on the county and Ensley answered no. Berry made a motion to approve. Helmer seconded. The motion carried unanimously.

EXTENSION OFFICE RENTAL CONTRACT

Mark Evans stated the Extension Office lease currently comes from the Commissioner budget. Auditor Berish had asked for it to be moved to the Extension budget. It's due to expire on 12/31/24. Pershing sent a statement that there were minor adjustments to account for changes in utility costs.
